

Neuroscience Program
Wake Forest School of Medicine
 2017-2018 Tutorial Schedule

SUMMER SEMESTER
Thursday, 10:00 – 11:00 a.m.
 Room 1064, 1st floor Hanes Bldg.

Date	Speaker	Seminar title
Monday 5/21 Noon – 1:00 p.m.	Christos Constantinidis, PhD	How not to give a bad talk
5/24	Emily Oor	Target-feature and outcome histories prime perceptual speed and efficiency in an urgent visual search task
	Kimberly Amick	Mitochondrial bioenergetics: the brain, exosomes, and aging
5/31	Madelyn Mauterer	Estrus for the Rest of Us: The Role of the Female Reproductive Cycle in Cocaine Taking Behavior and Dopamine Terminal Dynamics
6/7	Blake Neyland	Contributions of White Matter Hyperintensities to Gait Speed with Aging and Alzheimer's Disease
6/14	Nicole Kasica	Therapeutic Potential of eEF2K Inhibitors in a Mouse Model of Alzheimer's Disease
	Cassidy White	When nicotine metabolism meets nicotine reduction in cigarettes
6/28	Amy Leach	"Neurobiology of Individual Differences in Vulnerability to Drug Abuse"
6/29	Topic of Paper Due
7/5	Brianna George	The Impact of Sex and Early-life Stress on Heroin Self-Administration
	Lester Sands	Primacy of Mind: insights into human decision-making from computational psychiatry
7/12	Victoria Elliott	"The Multisensory Nature of Flavor Preference
	Samuel Barth	The Duplicitous Dichotomy of Alcohol and Its Effects on Depressive-Like Behavior
7/26	Caitlin Carroll	Glycemic effects on brain metabolism in Alzheimer's Disease
	Hailey Egido-Betancourt	Search for Molecular Bridge in Excitability in Alcohol Use Disorders
7/30	Final Paper Due

Neuroscience Program
Wake Forest School of Medicine
2017-2018 Tutorial Schedule

SUMMER SEMESTER
Thursday, 10:00 – 11:00 a.m.
Room 1064, 1st floor Hanes Bldg.

Date	Speaker	Seminar title
8/2	Ashkon Kucheki Mohammad Kawas	Relationship between Metrics of Resting Brain Network Connectivity and Cognitive Performance in African Americans with Type 2 Diabetes
08/09	Alexandra Baldassaro Spencer McCarthy	